Czech for Foreigners

Lector: Eva dos Reis, ecerov@volny.cz

The Department of Language Education, Faculty of Mathematics and Physics, Charles University in Prague, offers three levels of Czech for Foreigners. A credit can be assigned for each of the following courses:

1. Beginners – course aimed at those who are new to the Czech environment and language. Students will learn to read and pronounce Czech words, use basic phrases and understand elementary grammar to be able to have basic conversation.
   Study material: Holá, Bořilová. Čeština Expres 1, lessons 1 – 3 (Introductions, Orientation in the City, Restaurants, possibly unit 4 – Family).
   Study code: NJAZ097
   Time and place: Monday 12,20 – 13,50; V 151, Troja

2. Pre-Intermediate – course for those who can have a basic conversation in Czech and want to develop their skills further. Level assessment and final teaching plan will be made in the first lesson, please come.
   Study material depends on the level of students, intendent: Holá, Bořilová. Čeština Expres 2
   Study code: NJAZ099
   Time and place: Monday 14,00 – 15,30; V 107, Troja

3. Upper-Intermediate – conversation held purely in Czech, intended for those who can speak well and need more clarification of certain grammatical features (noun endings, verb forms, spelling), expansion of vocabulary and more practice in spoken and written form of the language. Professional language will be part of the course, as well as presentations of your academic projects. Level assessment and final teaching plan will be made in the first lesson, please come.
   Study material: compilation from various sources, tailored for the coming students and their needs.
   Study code: NJAZ101
   Time and place: Thursday 9,50 – 11,20; V 132, Troja

Requirements:
- Regular attendance
- Active class participation
- Completion of given tasks (quizzes, HWs, essay, oral presentation, final evaluation)

Note for Slavic speakers – beginners: You are welcome to combine the course for beginners and pre-intermediate students. Previous consultation with the lector necessary (in the first lesson).